Wedding Photography Service Contract This is a written agreement between Perfective Photography/Kimberly Gladden hereafter called "The Photographer" and the customer hereafter known as "The Customer". This agreement is for the sole purpose of booking and reserving a date for "The Customer" for the purpose of wedding photography and this contract will be used only for that purpose.

This is an agreement between "The Photographer and _____ "The Customer" in which both parties are aware that "The Photographer" has been hired to photograph the wedding of _____ "The Bride: and _____ "The Groom" on _____ "The Date". The couple has hereby paid a deposit in the amount of $200.00 and this deposit serves the purpose of reserving their wedding date of _____ for 8 coverage period. The second payment of $400 is due on the scheduled engagement session and $1100.00 is due 2 weeks prior to the scheduled wedding date. The $200 deposit will be held as a security deposit for wedding photography service to the rendered on the date specified above. The customer and the photographer understand that the deposit will go towards the final balance which will leave a balance due of $1100.00 which is to be paid in full on the date of the wedding. If this contract is cancelled by the fault of Perfective Photography, the client will receive a refund of the money received outside $400.00 if the engagement services have been provided. Whereas the money received is non-fundable or non-transferable if the client decides to cancel services with Perfective Photography.

If the wedding and reception, is outside of St Louis city, St Louis Counties or St Charles counties, there will be a traveling fee in addition to the cost of the wedding package.

If the client selects any wedding coverage other than "All Day" and the client selects to have pre-wedding images, the photography services will start at least 1 hour before the wedding ceremony. If the photographer is booked over 4 hours, the client must provide a meal for the photographer at the reception venue. If the photographer works over the time agreed, the client is responsible for paying the photographer an additional $50.00 every (15) minutes over the time agreed. Cash, cheque, or money order is accepted. Please make a cheque or money order payable to Kimberly M. Gladden. * Within 4-6 weeks from the wedding date, the client has access to their private wedding gallery featured on www.perfectivephotography.com.

After full payment, all images selected by the client will be delivered within 3-4 weeks from the ordering date. The pictures are the property of the client; however, the images are the property of Perfective Photography. Some images will be added to the photographer's portfolio and used only for promoting Perfective Photography services. This is a contract for services and the signatures below demonstrate an agreement to the terms of the contract between "The Photographer" and "The Client".
